The Valley Chorus is a non-profit association, organized in October of 1955. The Third Article of Association of the Valley Chorus states:

"This association is organized exclusively as an educational activity in the cultural media of vocal music. The Valley Chorus is a group of non-professional singers assembled for the purpose of stimulating an interest in various types of vocal music. It is an educational activity for its members and hopefully encourages public and community support of the performing arts."

Membership is seasonal and open to those 15 years and older. Rehearsals resume at Athens High School Chorus Room on January 24, 2011. Dues in the amount of $10.00 are collected each season to help defray the cost of music. If you would like to become a member of the chorus or would like information regarding a donation, contact any officer, or please write us at:
